“A place to gather amidst the beauty of nature”

Mercy Conference and Retreat Center offers a beautiful, serene chapel and conference rooms with business amenities. It includes spacious grounds for meditative walks and a labyrinth circuit.

Welcome to St. Louis

The area offers entertaining attractions in architecture, music, history, botany, food, and nightlife.

Six hundred and thirty feet tall, the Gateway Arch is a tribute to Thomas Jefferson and a monument to westward expansion. An elevator ride to the top affords spectacular views.

A tour of the Anheuser-Busch brewery or the historic Soulard Market (open since 1838) can be enjoyed. The Missouri Botanical Garden features Japanese, English and Chinese gardens.

The world's largest collection of mosaics, which took three generations and 20 different artists to complete, can be found at the St. Louis Cathedral Basilica.

Just across the river is Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site and covering nearly 1,300 acres, Forest Park is one of the largest urban parks in the United States.

About Divine Science

Divine Science is a metaphysical and spiritual teaching centered on the principle of God as One.

The Principle of the omnipresence of God means that God expresses as all Wisdom, all Power, and all Substance.

The knowledge of God's omnipresence and the application of that truth to our daily experiences brings the realization of abundant life – a life of health, harmony, power, and prosperity; a life that abounds in good and that frees us from limitations.

Divine Science Statement of Being

God is all, both invisible and visible.

One Presence, One Mind,

One Power is all.

*This One that is all is perfect Life,
perfect Love, and perfect Substance.*

*I am the individualized expression of God
and am ever one with this perfect Life,
perfect Love, and perfect Substance.*

Remembering God July 19 to 22, 2010

The 2010 Divine Science Conference/Retreat will investigate meditative practice and contemplation, the mystic life, vision and action. We will feature a variety of experiences including presentations and panel discussions as well as a "mini-retreat" format encouraging in-depth exploration and understanding. Special sessions offered include "Inviting Congregations," "New and Innovative Ministries," "Music Ministry" and "Moving from the Divine Source." All sessions will be applicable not only to New Thought ministers and practitioners but to all seekers of Truth and members of spiritual communities. A discussion on the final day will explore life's "big questions" in an open dialogue format. Daily services will be presented, each with beautiful music, revealing meditation and an uplifting message featuring a number of enlivening presenters. Join us in "Remembering God," facilitating a deeper understanding and experience of the One Life that is all-in-all.
